Financial Fraud Lawyer David C. Silver Receives "AV" Preeminent Rating From Martindale-Hubbell(R)

BOCA RATON, Fla., Feb. 12, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Silver Law Group is pleased to announce that co-founder David C. Silver, recently received an "AV" Preeminent Peer Review Rating™ from Martindale-Hubbell®. The Martindale Hubbell Directory, first published in 1896, has a 117-year history of providing unbiased peer review ratings and information to the public about the ethical standards and professional ability of attorneys. An "AV" rating is the highest level of professional excellence and ethical standards an attorney can receive.

The "AV" rating attained by Mr. Silver is the preeminent rating, achievable only after admission to the bar for at least ten years and indicating the highest level of legal ability and ethics. This rating indicates that an attorney's colleagues and the judiciary perceive him to be at the pinnacle of the profession. LexisNexis Martindale-Hubbell® conducts peer review ratings throughout the country in an effort to identify lawyers with the highest legal ability and ethical standards. The general ethical standards rating denotes adherence to professional standards of conduct, ethics, reliability, and diligence. The legal ability ratings are based on performance in five key areas, which include: legal knowledge, analytical capabilities, judgment, communication ability, and legal experience.

David C. Silver concentrates his practice in the area of financial fraud. Financial fraud is any deceptive or fraudulent business practice that takes place during a financial transaction. As an established trial attorney, David focuses on implementing innovative and aggressive strategies to change the dynamics of a case and to obtain the best possible result in settlement or trial. David has litigated a wide variety of commercial disputes involving professional negligence, accountant malpractice, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, conversion, breach of contract, negligence, negligent misrepresentation, misappropriation of trade secrets, violation of consumer protection statutes, securities fraud, and tortious interference with contractual and prospective business relationships.

"I am honored to have received the 'AV' rating from Martindale-Hubbell," David said upon receiving the coveted accolade. "This is a testament to the commitment that my firm and I make to each and every one of our clients. It is humbling to know that my colleagues respect and acknowledge my legal abilities and the continued dedication to my clients."
